Current questions in national outlook information, 1168
Demand for and supply of food marketing services: an aggregate view, 42
Economic theory and explanation of differences in price levels among local retail markets, 1496
Food needs, food production, and food for peace, 1077
Foreign supply, demand and trade projections, 1359
Outlook information needs of the agribusiness community, 1175
Price and market relationships for rice and corn in the Philippines, 685
Proposals for improvement of outlook information, 1179
Roles of farm productivity and marketing margins in postwar decline in farm prices, 31
Sources of error in aggregate supply estimates, 477
Test for predictability of statistical models, 1479
Uses of outlook information in Canadian agriculture, 1160
Livestock and livestock products
An economic appraisal of futures trading in livestock, 1485
Performance of the broiler industry—a simulative approach, 1467
Performance of the livestock-feed grain sector, 1455
Short-run beef supply response, 909
The ADA/USDA milk promotion study: does it prove advertising is profitable?: comment and reply, 754
Field crops
A duopoly model of world wheat pricing, 711
Demand analysis of the markets for soybean oil and soybean meal, 920
Determining efficient seasonal grain inventories: an application of quadratic programming, 648
Gains from basing grain storage decisions on cash-future spreads, 1490
Price elasticity of the marketed surplus of a subsistence crop, 875
Short-run supply of services—the case of soybean processing, 935
Other products
Stability of the cotton and tobacco industry under present and alternative programs, 1444
The supply function of Ghanaian cocoa: comment and reply, 467 and 1032

Marketing and Distribution of Agricultural Products
General
Analyzing the structure of agribusiness relations, 1379
Demand for and supply of food marketing services: an aggregate view, 42
Effective competition and changing patterns in the marketing of Agricultural products, prize-winning essays. Aug. Part II, p. 1-201 (See index following subject index)

Efficiency and welfare considerations in integrated agriculture, 1391
Government and the Food Commission Report, 1342
Government regulation and market performance-problems in research, 1420
Market structure research: comment and reply, 751
Roles of farm productivity and marketing margins in postwar decline in farm prices, 31
The Food Commission: Its product and Its role, 1319
The food industry and the Food Commission Report, 1328
Transhipment problem with inequality restraints, 894
Universities and the Food Commission Report, 1334
Transport
Economic standards for competitive freight rates, 1408
Two cases for unregulated truck transportation: comment and reply, 124 and 469
Retail markets
Economic theory and explanation of differences in price levels among local retail markets, 1496
Marketing institutions
Future roles for agricultural cooperatives, 1427
Products
A quantitative evaluation of the ability of individuals to grade live cattle, 61
Optimal beef and pork marketings, 209

International Trade
General and theoretical
A further look at P.L. 480 and the balance of payments, 728
A spatial price equilibrium model of international trade, 862
Foreign supply, demand and trade projections, 1359
Measuring changes in international trade, 847
Observations on U.S. loans under Public Law 480, and comment, 746
Price discrimination in the world trade of agricultural commodities, 194
Role of agricultural trade in economic development, 354
Trade policies and U.S. agriculture, 339

Manufacturing and agricultural production functions and international trade: United States and Northern Europe, 952
Trade policies and prospects in Western Europe, 1348
Countries
Food requirements dominate Britain's trade policy, 185
Products
A duopoly model of world wheat pricing, 711
Trade and welfare effects of EEC tariff policy: a case study of oranges, 826

Finance and Credit
General and theoretical
Capital requirements and financing practices for restructuring southern agriculture, 1550
Flow-of-funds analysis in farm financial management, 661
Impact of government subsidized farm operating loans on family labor employment in agriculture, 1216
Impact of structural changes on capital and credit needs, 1536
Premium ratemaking in an all risk crop insurance program, 1580

Economics of Production
General and theoretical
A recursive programming model of farm growth in Northern Germany, 668
Agrarian structure in relation to farm investment decisions and productivity: The Indian case, 1212
Changing use of rural resources, 1297
Estimates and projections of an income-efficient commercial-farm industry in the north central states, 578
Imputation of production to technologies, 309
Income variation and selection of enterprises, 1575

Manufacturing and agricultural production functions and international trade: United States and Northern Europe, 952
Models of firm growth, 1503
Optimum resource allocation in U.S. Agriculture, 613
Overestimates of returns to scale in agriculture—a case of synchronized aggregation, 967
Production problems and issues in agricultural development, 1195
Research opportunities and techniques in firm growth, 1522
Tailoring farm account projects to answer aggregate questions, 1623
Technological change in the agriculture of the United States and Australia, 264
Trends and problems in firm growth, 1513

Land and water
A methodology for predicting U.S. farm real estate price variation, 378
Adjusted benefit-cost ratios for six recent reclamation projects, 1002
Economic aspects of environmental pollution, 1256
Economic considerations in formulation of natural resource policies, 1232
Economic control of groundwater reserves, 632
Farm land prices and farm technological advance, 243
Future cropland requirements and projection sensitivity, 597
Relating ranch prices and grazing permit values to ranch productivity, 233

Labor
A case study of the exodus of labor from agriculture: Minnesota, 12
Alien workers in U.S. agriculture: impacts on production, 1137
Behavioral equations and equilibrium in the agricultural labor market, 1222
Causes of inter-county variations in farmers' earnings, 557
Farm-nonfarm migration in the Southeast: a cost-returns analysis, 1
Impact of government subsidized farm operating loans on family labor employment in agriculture, 1216
Income effects of innovation: the case of labor in agriculture, 325
Labor productivity measurement: the use of subsystems in the interindustry approach, 369
National agricultural labor policy considerations, 1121
Regional supply of hired labor to agriculture, 537

Capital
Capital requirements and financing practices in restructuring southern agriculture, 1550
Criteria for determining the optimum replacement pattern, 107
Impact of structural changes on capital and credit needs, 1536
Why do farmers overinvest?, 475

Industrial inputs
Crop damage from sulfur dioxide, 394
Evaluation of Indian fertilizer projects: an application of consumer's and producer's surplus, 704

Organization and management
A cooperative farming project in Chile, 295
A method of comparing contract proposals for broiler-chicken production: comment, 758
Analyzing systems of agricultural resource organization, 272
Flow-of-funds analysis in farm financial management, 661
Simplifying management games for extension programs, 1026
Supervision and management of farm labor, 1146
The Israeli Moshav in Nigeria, 279

Farm crops
Premium ratemaking in an all risk crop insurance program, 1580

Livestock and livestock products
A decision model for finishing calves on annual winter grazing, 1564

Cooperation

Marketing and Distribution
Future roles for agricultural coop-

eratives, 1427
Individual countries
A cooperative farming project in Chile, 295
The Israeli Moshav in Nigeria, 279

Education and Training
General
Agricultural economics in the USDA: a land-grant-university view, 422
Agricultural economics in the USDA: an inside view, 413
Improving agricultural economics education abroad: discussion report, 1587
Logic, science, and economics, 137
